Dear Sir Clive

I am writing on behalf of the Federation of Master Builders (FMB), the largest trade association in the UK building industry, to offer my members' condolences following the announcement of the passing of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

Her Majesty's dedication and duty to the nation and the Commonwealth was exemplary. She symbolised the very best of the United Kingdom and provided a rock of stability in an ever-changing world. Few of my members will be able to remember a time when Her Majesty wasn't a part of their lives providing an inspiring example of leadership.

Our thoughts are with the Royal Family at this sad time.

Yours sincerely
