NB Where acting as a p being held in

NB Where appropriate, Blended Learning equates to the first day of training being held online, acting as a precursor to the main body of the Course, with the subsequent allocated day or days being held in a formal classroom setting; designed to establish levels of learning, thus enhancing further knowledge and understanding

REFERENCE & GUIDANCE NOTES

The Member's discounted Fee shown is per head and exclusive of VAT. If CITB Grant applies, then it will consider to be construction specific training; always please check this with the provider, plus confirming that you are a Group Member (discount purposes!). However, we continue to have our own Special Projects Fund, aimed at non-Construction specific training; any likely OCTG financial support, and the level of % to be attributed, will follow on receipt of an approved expression of interest via DH, including a Group PO Number; this will be required by the Member, based on you settling directly with the provider, then claiming from ourselves via a formal invoice, and relevant supporting details, for audit purposes.

Regarding Screen Tests, which should always follow on from the CITB H&S Awareness Course (CSCS Green Labourer Card), please do check the cost and availability of this with the provider, as it is understood that there could be some limitation on availability of places (this stage is normally priced separately in the order of circa £40.00/head + VAT). In any event, CITB Short Duration Grant should always be determined (via the latest CITB GET Code listing – <https://www.citb.co.uk/media/fa3ph5uk/2023-03-13-get-codes.pdf> As some will know, It is now the role of an ATO (CITB Approved Training Organisation) to aid the claiming process, once the course has been satisfactorily completed, thus meeting the required recognised Standard. Should the provider not enjoy ATO status, it will be your responsibility to make your own claim, whereupon we can gladly provide assistance in this respect.

Please, just because a particular topic/title does not appear on this latest Schedule, it does not mean that any relevant training you wish to undertake will not be considered for support. Always feel free to enquire about what trade-specific/management or supervisory needs you are planning. Plant training and accreditation, by their very nature, is more flexible, so always view the Construction Industry Training Providers Limited (CITP) and ATS Training Services Group websites directly (www.constructiontrainingproviders.co.uk or www.atsgroupuk.co.uk) at your leisure re relevance of the titles, published standard listings, accreditations and linked Awarding Organisations. Equally, other than CPCS, and from an NPORS perspective, always discuss directly with TEB Plant Training (Tom Barstow, based at Upper Heyford). Furthermore, we are also in touch with other well-respected specialist providers who readily make themselves available to assist, so this option is always worth serious consideration. Equally, we are always pleased to hear about good experiences from other providers that you may have had during recent times, as the 'freshening-up' of our supplier network is critical in the context of supporting both quality and value-for-money principles.
